Special advertising formats

Advertorial

Advertorials are ads that have the appearance of an editorial contribution of an editorial article

The law requires is a clear separation of editorial editorial content and advertising. Therefore advertorials are marked with the word "Advertisement".

Legal aspects and prices of an advertorial, for the magazine Reiter Revue International magazine, will be upon request.

Gatefolder

The exclusive entry into the magazine! The coverpage is extended by a display page that can be folded out to the left. Open, a double page is created inside as a design area. The reduction of the flap to half the width of the magazine allows, for example, a responsive postcard placement.

Advantages of the gatefolder

- · Exclusive positioning on the book cover
- three pages for free design

Oversize Loose Insert

The oversize loose insert sticks out 30 mm beyond the upper binding margin of the magazine. This results in a particularly high advertising impact.

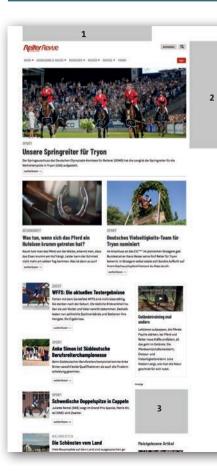

More special advertising formats, technical specifications and prices on request.
